Website Data Collected

Protecting your privacy is important to us. Please read our policy below to learn how we treat information you provide.

We want our users to always be aware of any information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it. We respect each site visitor's right to personal privacy. To that end, we collect and use information throughout our Website only as described in this Privacy Policy.

The information we collect is never shared with other organizations for commercial purposes and used only for internal website traffic reporting. For each visitor to our website, our web server automatically recognizes only the visitor's domain name.

Cookies Disclosure

We may collect, analyze and store general statistical information of your usage of the website, (such as your IP address, browser type, originating domain names, access times and referring website addresses) through the use of first party cookies or server logs.

You can refuse to accept these cookies on each browser and device through which you visit this website. Keep in mind that by not accepting cookies, you may experience some inconvenience using this website and the products and services offered on this website.

We use cookies that you accept to improve the content and determine the effectiveness of our website, to personalize your experience, and analyze usage data. We may partner with third parties such as Google to monitor activities on our website including web traffic, statistics, and/or other activities in order to improve browsing experiences on our website. Our partner may use cookies, web beacons, and/or other monitoring technologies to compile statistics about website visitors.

If you fill out a web form on this site your information will be stored in our CRM system and/or CMS and some amount of your past browsing on this site may be available to our staff to determine your interests so we may more effectively engage with you and so we may improve our site. If you do not wish for us to have your personal information, please do not fill out any of the web forms on this site. We never sell or give away this information.

This information can include: name, address, date of birth, tax-payer identification number, phone number(s), income, credit history, account balances and transaction history. This information is protected under the provisions of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) and is necessary for everyday business.

Use of Information

We may share information about you third parties as permitted by law. These third parties may assist us in the processing of transactions, or to provide services such as mailing your periodic statements. Types of third parties we share your information with include: ATM networks, mortgage insurers, bill payment processors, consumer credit reporting agencies, check printers, and data processing companies.

Opportunity to Opt-Out

If you choose to opt-out, we will not share any information with third parties where said information is able to be limited based on federal regulations. Choosing to opt-out of information sharing may limit your opportunities to receive product and service information that may interest you.

Request for Deletion

Under the CCPA, a consumer shall have the right to request that a business delete any personal information about the consumer which the business has collected from the consumer.

A business or a service provider shall not be required to comply with a consumer's request to delete the consumer's personal information if it is necessary for the business or service provider to maintain the consumer's personal information in order to:

“Complete the transaction for which the personal information was collected, provide a good or service requested by the consumer, or reasonably anticipated within the context of a business's ongoing business relationship with the consumer, or otherwise perform a contract between the business and the consumer”
